

Redundancy and Outplacement Solutions

Businessary has a range of outplacement solutions to provide a supported and compassionate transition for your people.

Our career experts and psychologists provide specialist advice on:

- Personal networking strategies
- Tailoring resumes
- Understanding the recruitment and search firm markets
- Interview preparation
- LinkedIn and social media profiles
- Alternative career options, including self-employment

We offer a range of outplacement solutions that meet the changing needs of people who are exiting your company. Additionally, we're always happy to discuss your specific needs and budget to ensure the best outcome for your people.

Package options

Online self-led learning

Access to our information library for self-paced learning

3-month program

Hybrid access to our experts and our information library

Unlimited access

Combination of our online learning and access to experts for an unlimited period

Tailored program

Bespoke tailored solution to meet your needs. Enquire for pricing

IN SUMMARY

- We make the complex, simple.
- We're big on business solutions, big on business expertise, big on HR solutions and digital marketing, but not big on expense.
- 1:1 advice on how to approach the job market and search
- Support for exiting and current employees available
- Recruitment experts to provide realistic advice on the job search
- Psychologists to provide advice on transition and change
- Psychometric assessments to assist with identifying the best job and person fit
- Packages available to suit different individuals or provide a tailored solution